We Dedicate Our 1987 Yearbook To Two Dedicated 1st Grade Teachers

Carol Waters began teaching at Collins in 1977 and came to Collins-Maxwell when the schools reorganized in 1983. She will join her husband in San Diego, California. We thank her for her service here and wish her luck in sunny California.

Julie Calava Twedt joined our staff at Maxwell in 1979. She will be moving to Cleveland, Ohio. Again we thank you for your service here, Julie, and wish you the best in Cleveland.

Best wishes from all of us at Collins-Maxwell. Your special talents in education will be missed here.

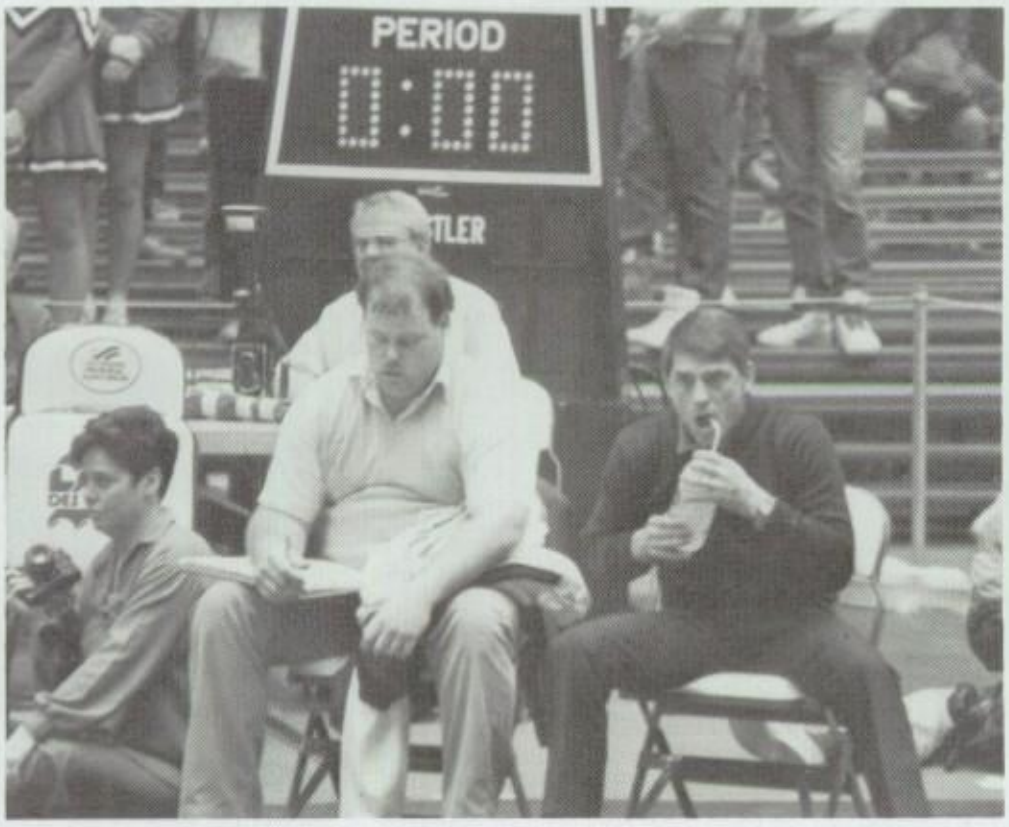
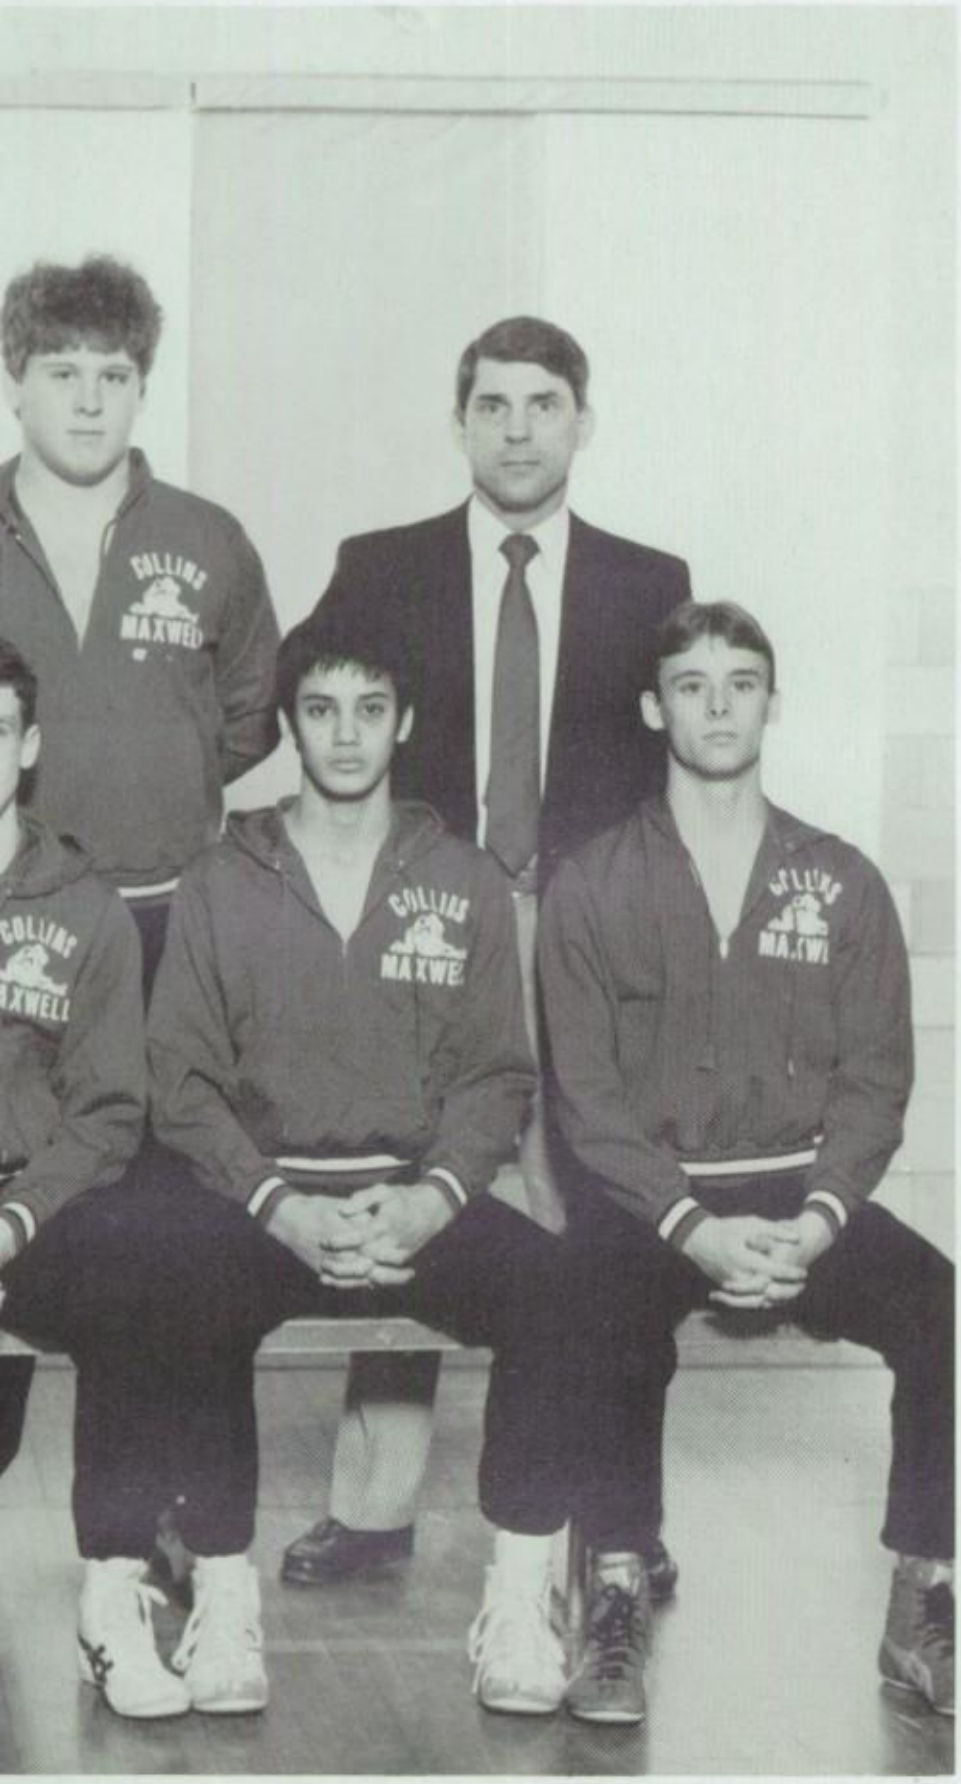
This Year's wrestling team was small, but made big news. The team didn't have much support from the fans but self-determination and pride took them to the state championships in Des Moines. Dennis Hennick and Ron Smith represented the Collinns-Maxwell School.





Panther Wrestling 1987
Outstanding Determination And Pride

The 1986-87 season was very successful for many individual wrestlers. As a team the Panthers were always at a distinct disadvantage because of the few numbers out for wrestling. But it was an exciting team and they did place very high in our five tournaments.

INDIVIDUAL RESULTS:

Dennis Hennick-Sr. 112 lb. 30-4-1 (4 yr. record 87-27-1); 5th Place in State Tournament; 1st Place at BonDurant, North Polk, Gladbrook, & Colfax Tournament. 1st at Sectionals & Districts, 2nd at Monroe Trn.

Kaipo Raiser-Soph. 119 lb. 1-16; 3rd at BonDurant JV Tournament

Ron Smith-Jr. 126 lb. 29-5; State Qualifier, 1st at North Polk, Gladbrook, Colfax, Sectionals, & Districts, 2nd at Bondurant, 3rd at Monroe Trn.

Mike Vernon-Jr. 132 lb. 6-20, 2nd at Bondurant JV Trn., North Polk JV Trn., 3rd at Gladbrook Var. Trn. at 138 lb.

Todd Sexton-Soph. 167 & 185 lb. 3-14, 3rd at Bondurant JV Trn.

Martin Coughenour-Jr. 167 lb. 24-7, 1st at Sectionals, Dist. Qualifier, 1st at Monroe & Colfax Trn., 2nd at Bondurant, Gladbrook, North Polk Trn.

Singing Moments

Tradition . . . . . Tradition -

Musicals are a tradition at Collins-Maxwell High School. Each year in the Month of March we are treated to a bit of Broadway here in Maxwell, Iowa. This excellent productions are the results of our very fine music director, Mrs. Hartzer. She is assisted by Alice Beavers and many other people who through donations of props and craftsmanship make these splendid presentations possible. It is especially wonderful to see the varied talents of the performers. You bring out the very best in them, too, Mrs. H. Thanks for another wonderful year.

Fiddler

Tradition . . . . . Tradition!

So sings the main character, Tevye, in the musical "Fiddler On The Roof." I will long remember this son and many other special moments in this year's musical. This perhaps is one of the two most challenging musicals we have attempted here at Collins-Maxwell and for me, it is our best effort yet. It is very gratifying to see how the students progress from the day they are assigned their parts to the finished product. Most rise to the occasion and provide outstanding performances and very few are disappointing. We are establishing a tradition of our own .... presenting a musical each year and working hard to make it a project we can be proud of.

My thanks to all the student involved in making "Fiddler" a memorable occasion for me and hopefully others.

Mrs. Hartzer

Student Council

The student council members are elected by their classmates, two members from each class are elected. The duties of the student council include: organizing fun activities for homecoming week and planning the homecoming dance. We do appreciate all the work they do for us and would like to thank them, THANKS!

This year the Physics Olympics Team went to the Iowa State Contest and did very well. This is the second year in a row that Mrs. Henderson has had a team qualify for the state meet. All of the students in the chemistry class helped work on the projects for the olympics. Some of the projects include wind-up windmills, toothpick bridges, mousetrap cars, and a can-can. The Students construct these projects from ordinary household items. Each project involves a lot of experimenting and testing to make sure it will perform correctly. These projects represent the practical side of textbook learning and allow the students to apply the principles they have learned. Congratulations MRS. Henderson.

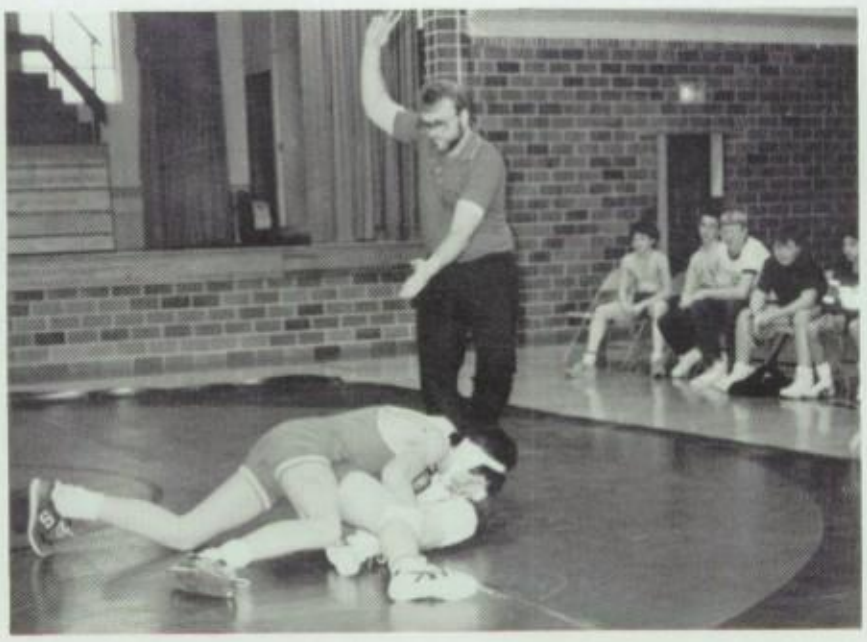
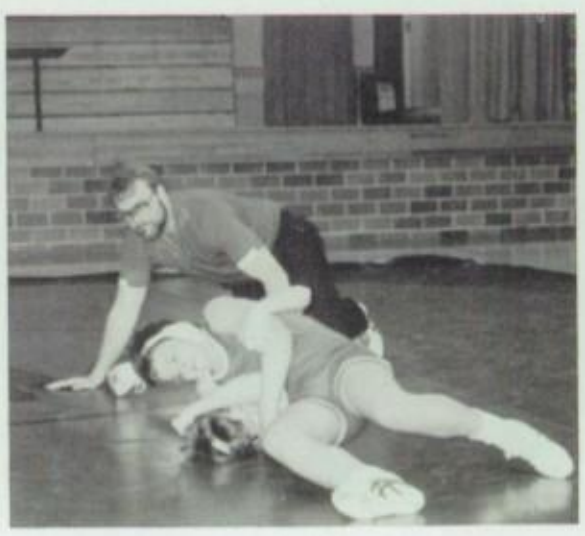
ACTION ON THE MAT





The Collins-Maxwell Middle School's girls' team had a super group of students work extremely well together on th basketball court. They turned in a perfect 7-0 record by defeating:

Baxter	50-33
Colo	46-35
Colo	32-18
Green Mountain	33-27
United	56-32
United	49-33
Baxter	51-12

By averaging 45 points offensively and 27 points defensively, the girls attained the best averages for a CMMS team i the past several years. Eighth grade forwards contributing to the effort were: Jodi Beavers (26.5 point game average, 3 point game high), Chantel Mullihan (8 point game average, 14 point game high), Tracy Taken (6.2 point game average, 1 point game high), and Billie Smith (1.5 game average, 4 point game high). Eighth graders in the guard court were: Sara Holland (averaged 6 rebounds, 4 steals, Michelle Zeiser (averaged 3 rebounds, 2 steals), Melissia Anderson (2 rebounds, steals), Laura Cherry, Shelly Hall and Gail Gardner. Seventh grade forwards Tina Elding (5.8 point game average, 9 poir game high), Cheryl Sesker, Alethea Bowen, Heather Adams, Debbie Lee and seventh grade guards Joni Gardne (averaged 5 rebounds, 2 steals), Ruth Ann Carpenter, and Carrie Lawrence balanced out this successful team. THE GLAMOROUS LIFE

Class Prophecies

MIKE ADAMS: We see Mike in ten years as the owner of a company called "B.A. Adams Juice", the drink that adds a punch, really, to every sip.

CHAD ARNOLD: We see Chad Arnold replacing the old Herb on Burger King commercials to become the new Herb.

ED BALDWIN: In ten years, we see Ed Baldwins Truck-O-Matic finally finished and driving it around in Rome as to become a real Priest.

TRISHA BLACK: In 1997 we see Trisha Black still trying to make Mr. Williams head bigger than it already is by throwing a basketball at him when he's not looking.

WES CAMP: In ten years, we see Wes still smiling and as happy as ever with unknown thoughts running through his mind.

MIKE CARAWAY: Ten years from now we see Mike Caraway with a chain of stores called "Wild Wear" featuring his very own exclusive collection of Hawaiian Parot Pants with reinforced seams.

PAT CHITTY: We see Pat Chitty having his cupboards full of his favorite food --- beany weanies, of course.

DARCY ERICKSON: Most of us see Darcy Erickson single still looking for that perfect man who is as successful as she is. A few feel she'll be married to Jim and still arguing over who has the better burger — Hardee's or Burger King.

MELISSA HALEY: In ten years we see Melissa Haley married to Scott Horn and both becoming famous singers and sharing their wealth with their two favorite Jr. Cousins - Deanna and Bryce.

DAWN HANSEN: In ten years we see Dawn Hansen as a professional Demolition Derby driver and having a chain of car body repair shops entitled "Dawn's Mercedes Dent."

DENNIS HENNICK: By 1997 we see Dennis Hennick able to tell the difference between an odor eater and a panty liner for his wrestling shoes.

THERESA HENNICK: Theresa Hennick in ten years will still be trying to sell her green bomb of a car. She and her mom will own a beauty salon in downtown Maxwell.

RENEE LINDSTOM: We still see Renee Lindstom raising her hand whenever she hears a whistle blow. Renee is co-owner of a bakery shop with Mel Marrs.

MELADEE MARRS: In ten years, we see Meladee Marrs in her bakery shop still trying to construct a gingerbread house for Mrs. Bunkers. Chris Meyers is suppose to be over soon.

MELONY MCCULLOUGH: In 1997 we see Mel as the top fashion Designer in New York and also part time singer in her chain night clubs "Temptations II" singing her top ten hit "Pity, Tear, Tear."

MIKE MCHONE: In 1997, we see Mike McHone finally coming to a Junior-Senior High School Prom.

DANNY NEWTON: In ten years we see Dan Newton still having a complete set of Star Wars Action figures and driving a pick-up with dents all over, the hood bashed in and the doors tore off.

CHRIS NILSSON: In ten years we see Chris as Sweden's top professional golf ' "Wacker", playing in all of the U.S. opens and tournaments making lots of money.

CHRIS REITAN - MYERS: In ten years we see Chris Reitan - Myers down at Meladee Marr's Bakery shop trying to help Mel construct a gingerbread house which hasn't just had a passing tornado.

JUSTINE ROBERTSON: Ten years from now we see Justine Robertson working as a Cosmotologist and still going to ALL STAR WRESTLING to see Brad.

TAMMY RUMBAUGH: In ten years we see Tammy Rumbaugh teaching drivers education on "how to turn a dounut." She'll be married to Jim and have several "Little Huds."

KELLY SALYERS: In ten years we see Kelly Salyers still living at home with her parents and borther. She weighs 200 pounds from all her junk food she eats but she still has beautiful hair.

LISA SULLIVAN: We see Lisa Sullivan competing with Mel having her own night clubs called "Lisa E's" with the latest in raps and hot music.

DALE SWALLWELL: In 1997 we see Dale still driving "Ernie" around with his own camp out site at the Maxwell Gravel Pit.

SEAN TRAVIS: In ten years, see Sean Travis buying another old Falcon and trying to fix it up, but instead blowing it up. He still has his Black Falcon, by the way, and it still isn't fixed up.

STUART VANDERVEGTE: We see Stuart as Mr. July in the 1997 issue of Play girl's best top 10 Playboys of the year, decked out in his Hawaiian suspenders and superman undies.

LADONNA WATKINS: In ten years we see LaDonna Watkins accidentally lifting her shirt at her boss and getting a salary increase as she accidentally did in volleyball.

CHRIS WHALEY: We see Chris Whaley no longer with us because she died from an overdose of Mountain Dew.

CANDY WHEAT: Candy Wheat in ten years, we see married to her long time romance, Travis H eideman, whom are both happy and well off with their own chain of "Bordy's", known world wide with matching jackets for regular visitors of their well profiting organization.

MIKE ZEISER: In ten years we see Michael Zeiser as a multi-millionaire of the National Procrastinators Accounting Association living in his mansion, and still trying to decide which one of his porshe's to take down to the loop in Des Moines.

Senior Wills

I, Theresa Hennick, being of sound mind and no body, will the ability to drive on the road instead of sidewalks to Mary Meusburger, for someday she may hit someone.

I, LaDonna Gail, being of loud sound and overworked body, will my pretty blue and green polyester uniform to Deanna in hope that she'll wear it soon.

I, Melissa Haley, being of small sounds with no smell, lost mind, and some kind of body do hereby will the following: to my beloved cousin, Deanna Plunkett, my eating neatly abilities, my upper half to Theresa Hennick; my beautiful car to Janelle Wright; my lace gloves to Jodi (Bumb) Rumbaugh; my driving abilities and crash and roll tricks to Bryce Caple; and to Dan Moody, Bruce Caple and Andy Deo, I leave my Jr. High Wrangler shirts, so they can give my nickname to someone else; and to Sean Travis my ability to drive a car without waking people up.

I, Ed Baldwin, being of unsound mind and hairy body will the following: To Bryce and Andy my Thursday night advantures; to the School-5 Square yards of sod to fix all the grass we tore up in the ditch; to Lisa Sullivan I will truck-o-matic because it is indestructable; and my will power not to go to Mac's, Do-Nut Land and Dairy Queen at one stop to Tammy Rumbaugh (no hard feelings); and to Andrew Deo my beard because he'll probably be 60 before he growns one of his own.

I, Stuart Edward VanderVegte, being of no mind and photographic body, will the following: To Doug Franklin, I will my ability to sing and my ability to use expressions when singing; to Brent Larson I will my self-confidence, I have too much anyway; to Jodie Hoover a gun safety manual; to Janelle Wright my suspenders, and finally I will one Playgirl Magazine with me as the centerfold, to all the girls in high school.

I, Mike Zeiser, being of sound mind and body leave the following: To Doug Franklin the ability to shave my upper lip, and to Mr. Heintz a road map and a driver's manual.

I, Melony J. McCullough, being of small mind and body, will the following: To Michelle Huggins, I would give my curfew if I had one; to Janelle Wright, I give my Gumby doll and my dorm room floor; to Deanna Plunkett I give my Mr. Rogers Poster and my Southern Accent; to Andy Deo I give my little Christmas Tree; to Angel Tyler I give my ability to lie to guys and get away with it; to Jamie Minear and Jodie Moore I give my most valued possession — my car - drive it with pride; to Kerrie Schulz I leave my merry maid uniform to give to her freshman on Halloween; and to Jim Brafford I leave my ability to lie to my parents and get away with it.

I, Candace Wheat, of sound mind and no body what-so-ever, will my ability to "hold my own" to Tammy Rumbaugh and LaDonna Watkins; to Meladee Marrs, I will my ability to come to school on Mondays with "marks" on my neck; to Chris Whaley I will my ability to smile without forcing myself to do so; and finally to Chris Myers I will my green pick-up in hopes that she'll never forget the great time the three of us had in it.

I, Renee Lindstrom, being of little mind and too much body, will to Jodie Hoover the ability to show up for school more than three days a week.

I, Dale Swalwell, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will these things: To Scott Nerem my assumed ability to perversion in hopes that he will use it on his dates with Sherry; to Dan Moody my ability to say I know nothing about it; to Bryce Caple and Andy Deo my party instincts; and to Gina my ability to look at something without "gawking".

I, Lisa Sullivan, being of sound mind and body, hereby will my ability to clean up kitchen floors to Wes Camp, Dale Swalwell, and Chris Whaley - all of whom should have helped me! I will my cheerleading sweater to Deanna Plunkett in hopes one day she'll be able to fill it all; and last of all I will Michelle Huggins my ability to laugh at all the rumors which float around .... heaven knows she'll need it at this rate.

I, Chris Reitan-Myers, being of parental mind and stretched body, will to Candy Wheat a box of fuses for her green truck.

We, Chris Myers, Tammy Rumbaugh and Candy Wheat, being of corruptive minds and seductive bodies, will to Mel Marrs the next victim of the dreaded lunchtime question.

I, Tammy Rumbaugh, being of small mind and body that's just there, will my ability to be home before curfew without "losing track of time" to Meladee Marrs and to the "elite group" (you know who you are) I just wish that everyone could be as great as we were!!!!

I, Pat Chitty, being of sound mind (I think) and a very tall body will my height to anyone who wants it and have loads of fun finding clothes to fit you. I will my ability to anyone who will wear FUNKY SHORTS and old man T-Shirts during the winter. Oh, last but not least — Tis the season!!!

I, Chad Arnold, of sound mind and slightly long armed body will my ability to pick on underclassmen to Kaipo and Stanley.

I, Wes Camp, being of sound mind and fast body, will to all the athletes the ability to have speed.

I, Justine Robertson, being of sound mind and whatever body, will Amy Janssen the ability to go to All-Star Wrestling and keep her hands to herself; to Sharie Troup the ability to color her hair pink and still get a date; and to Cami Mullihan to remember her P.E. clothes.

I, Kelly Salyers, being of small yet non-dizzy mind and small body, will to Teri McHone the ability to survive through 3 more years of high school, she is one of the few cool ones left; to Carrie Hovland the ability to be as nice and understanding to her freshman as I was to mine and no I didn't forget; I want my candy!!

I, Dan Newton, being of sound mind and heart, will the following: My truck of Rusty, so he can drive it on homecoming; my razor to Ed since he needs it more than I do; and Scott Nerem the ability to drive my truck when I shouldn't.

I, Sean Travis, being of no mind and brittle body will Kaipo my leather jacket in hopes that the coat will scare people away; and my car to anyone who can keep it out of the ditches and Swedes off the windshield.

I, Chris Whaley, being of dizzy mind and flabby body will the following: to Teri McHone the ability to drive a clutch; to Kelly Salyers the ability to stop correctly at a stop sign; to West Camp the ability to not get lost during any activity.

I, Christofer Nilsson, being of sound mind and foreign body, leave my spacing ability to all the hyper little freshmen; and my ability to be quiet in the mornings to Joni Henning; and some nice Swedish words to Doug Franklin and the rest of the golf team.

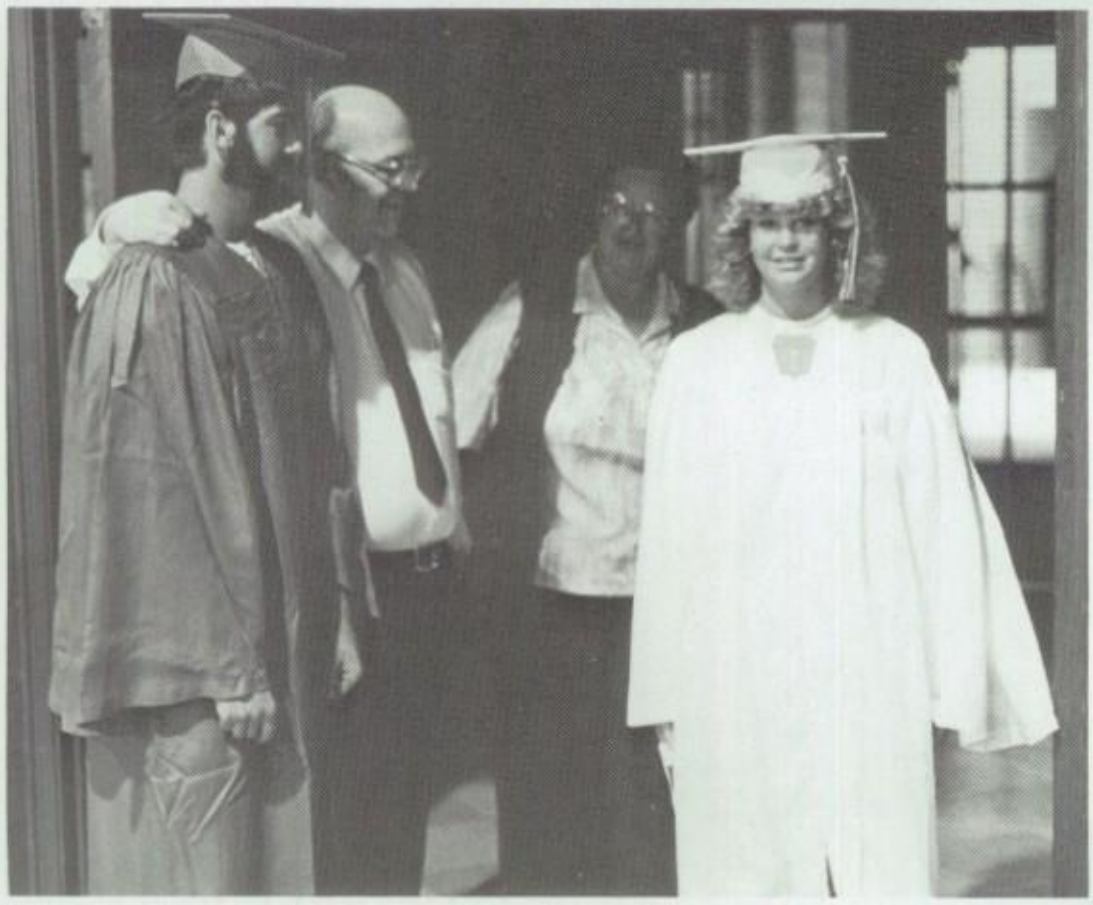
I, Darcy Erickson, being of somebody and ever-so-sound mind and body, will absolutely nothing to anybody because it is mine and nobody deserves anything.

I, Dennis Hennick, being of sound mind and abused body, will my ability to succeed in wrestling and not think I'm God to Martin Coughenour!! Good luck Marty!!!

I, Trisha Black, being of sound mind and body, will the following: to Mr. Williams the ability to catch a basketball when thrown at him; to Andy Deo the ability to shoot a basketball for our team, not the visitor's team.

I, Dawn Hansen, being of sound mind and no chest, do hereby will my ability to laugh without the whole room hearing to Janelle Wright and to Swede I will all my Bruce Springstein tapes and posters.

We're Just Beginning



The Collins-Maxwell Communities congratulate you as seniors and wish you the best of luck as you pursue your dreams and goals. We look forward to the contributions you will make to our communities as you take your place in the adult world.
